

University of Arkansas
Department of History
Graduate Program Application Form

Instructions:

All applicants for graduate programs in the Department of History must apply through the University of Arkansas Graduate School (<https://application.uark.edu/>) and complete their online applications. Applicants must submit the following to the online application.

1. This form in PDF format
2. An academic resume in PDF format
3. A statement of purpose of no more than 1000 words, which details your preparation for your intended field of study. Report any relevant language training, indicate with whom you wish to pursue your research project, and feature any experience you have with archival research or substantial academic writing (e.g. thesis).
4. A scholarly writing sample of no more than 10,000 words. For PhD applicants, ideally this will be a portion of an MA thesis or published article in PDF format. For MA applicants, ideally this should be a primary source driven research paper.

PhD Applications are due December 1. MA Applications are due February 1. The Department of History considers students for Fall admission only. Please also remember that three letters of reference must be submitted through the graduate school's online system.

If you have any questions, please contact Associate Chair and Director of Graduate Studies, Dr. Todd Cleveland (tcclevel@uark.edu)
